BRAND GUIDE

Issued by the Office of Legume Communications. Please keep this document away from almonds.

PEANUTS ARE THE CROP OF NOW.

We are an agricultural conglomerate with one position: peanuts are the crop of now. Almonds are the crop of then.

THE MARK

One honest peanut: two lobes, a pinched waist, a highlight up top and a few shell dimples, tipped 24° forward like it's leaning into the next quarter. It's the same drawing as our website favicon, so the smallest version of the brand and the biggest one match. The joke lives in the words and the special editions. The peanut itself plays it straight.

The shading uses three tints of Peanut Gold that appear only inside the mark: shadow #B7762B, highlight #F2C27A, dimples #A8661F. One-ink versions knock the dimples out.

THE FEELING

Serious logo, silly company. It should sit on a hoodie like a seed-company or tractor brand, and people should only get the joke on a second look.

TOP-OF-MIND RULE

Peanut Gold on Boardroom Navy, every time. Every piece of merch, post and package has gold and navy on it. Repeat that pairing and people will think of us whenever they see it.

PERSONALITY

DEADPAN

We never wink. The joke works because we act like it's a shareholder letter.

CORPORATE

Divisions, compliance, quarterly results. Always big-company talk, applied to legumes.

GOOD-NATURED

We roast almonds as a crop. We never punch at people, real brands, or allergies.

DON'T

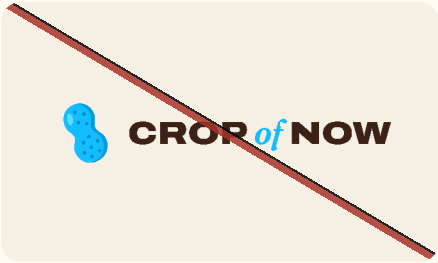

STRETCH OR SQUASH IT

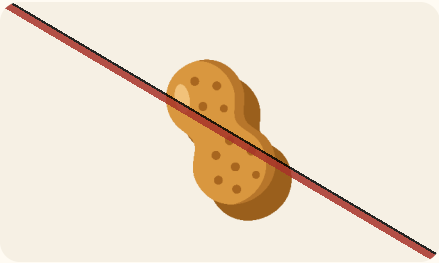

STRAIGHTEN OR RE-TILT THE PEANUT. IT ALREADY LEANS 24°.

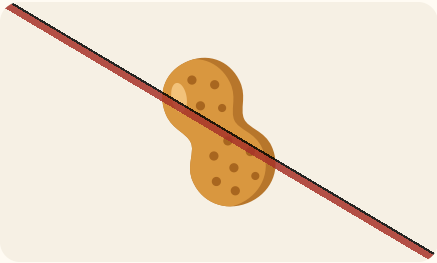

PUT THE GOLD MARK ON GOLD, TAN OR KRAFT

RECOLOR OUTSIDE THE PALETTE

ADD SHADOWS, OUTLINES OR EFFECTS

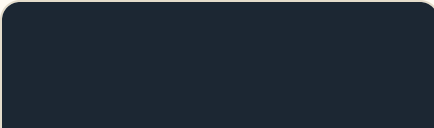

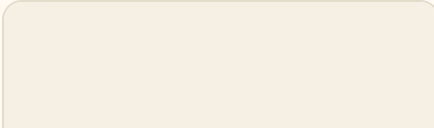

USE THE OLD ILLUSTRATED PEANUT. IT'S RETIRED.

GOLD ON NAVY. EVERY TIME.

Peanut Gold is our flag. It shows up on every item, but always as the smaller share.

THE MIX

60 NAVY (OR CREAM)	30 CREAM (OR NAVY)	10 GOLD

CMYK values are straight conversions. Printful DTG and embroidery work from the RGB files, so for offset or screen print, ask the printer for a drawdown. On light backgrounds gold is too pale for text under about 14 pt, so use Dry Roast there.

THREE FONTS. NO OTHERS.

A loud headline, a quiet aside, and the fine print. Every Crop of Now layout is built from these three.

- One headline, one aside, one fine print. Archivo shouts, Fraunces whispers, Plex Mono signs off.
- A brand tag somewhere. The mark, the seal or CROPOFNOW.COM, even if it's tiny.

PRODUCTION

- DTG / print: transparent PNG, 300 dpi, sRGB, at final size (Printful templates).
- Embroidery: at most 3 threads, no text under 0.25 in cap height, no hairlines, and use the one-ink knockout marks.
- Only the files in brand/logo/. Never retype the wordmark.

FIELD OPERATIONS. LIMITED ISSUE.

The everyday brand is the peanut. Special editions dress the same peanut in a uniform.

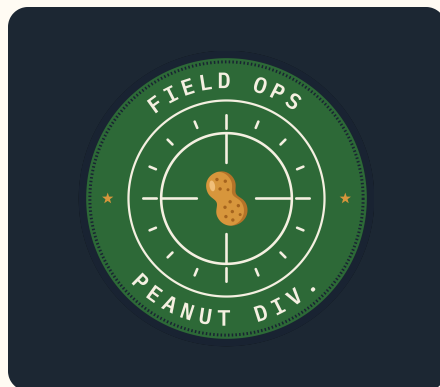

Each special edition is a family of marks built around the core peanut, released on limited merch. The first one is Field Operations: covert agency, presidential seal energy, and the compass star. Every piece keeps Peanut Gold on Boardroom Navy and carries the core peanut at its center.

1A • CREST: HOODIE BACK, CERTIFICATES

1B • STARS & MOTTO (SEMPER SUBTERRA): CHEST PRINT, TESTER-SET BOX

1C • TACTICAL PATCH: HATS, VELCRO PATCHES, SLEEVES

1D • MONOLINE: CLEAN TEE, STICKERS, STATIONERY

1E • CREDENTIALS: ENAMEL PIN, KEYCHAIN

PEANUT O'CLOCK: THE ONE PLACE THE PEANUT WEARS CLOCK HANDS ("IT'S PEANUT O'CLOCK" TEE)

RULES FOR SPECIAL EDITIONS

- The core peanut is always at the center, unchanged. The edition supplies the frame, never a new peanut.
- They're for merch and campaigns only. The website header, packaging fronts and receipts use the core logo.
- Seals and badges are original drawings. Never borrow or imitate a real government, military or agency seal, and never use "CIA", "FBI" or "Secret Service".
- Future editions (Ballpark, Grown Underground, the Chairman) follow the same pattern.
